THE BOARD OF TRADE. - The gentlenan having in hand the matter of ascermining the sense of our business men on the project of organizing a Board of Trade in this city, continued his calls yesterday. When we saw the list of signatures to the call for a meeting last vening, it embraced the names of over most prominent business men of all most prominent business men of all classes. We learn that but little opposition was met with yesterday, but that on the contrary, a hearty concurrence in the matter seemed to animate all.—

The good to be derived from such an organization is patent to all, and was committed. Elizabeth was fined $10 and costs, which we believe she settled. It is a great pity that our city cannot be rid of these people, Every now and then some one of them is arrested, and fined, and generally committed, and it is getting to be a matter of too common occurrence to see the class creatures in our police. The good to be derived from such an organization is patent to all, and we need scarcely allude to what it is proposed to make it, to convince any one of its usefulness. The work of the Board will be to collect and record such local and general statistical information, relating to commerce and manufactures, as may promote the interests of Wheeling, and protect and advance the welfare of the commercial and manufacturing classess—to promote just and equitable principles in trade—to establish uniformity in the commercial usages of the city—to settle, in a proper and just method, disputes as to contracts, usages, accounts, &c., and the many differences of opinion which honestly exist touching business relations, which differences often lead to expensive and lifferences often lead to expensive and t is proposed to organize the Board out the 1st of next month.

JUDGE HALL AND THE ATTORNEY-GENERALSHIP.—If will be remembered that in our paper yesterday morning a proclamation was published by Goveror Boreman, announcing the election of the Hon, Ephraim B, Hall as Judge of the 10th Judicial District. As our of the 10th Junicial District. As our readers are aware Mr. Hall now occu-pies the position of Atterney-General of the State, and if he accepts the posi-ion of Judge, which we understand he has consented to do, he will necessarily be compelled to vacate the position of Attorney-General, Yesterday Mr. Hall's ommission as Judge was issued, which, f accepted, makes the vacancy. The if accepted, makes the vacancy. The Governor then, under the provisions of the law below quoted, must, within ten days after learning of such vacancy, issue his proclamation accordingly, and within sixty days thereafter, call an election to fill the vacancy. If he sees fit, he can appoint some person to temporarily fill the position, until the party elected shall be qualified. We have not learned whether or not it is the intention of the Governors temporarily fill the vacancy. As soon as Judge Hall accepts the Governor's action will ensue. We subjoin the law governing in such

AN "EMPTY" SPECULATION.-We heard recently of a proposed specula-tion, which, in our view of business matters, looks like about as "empty" a speculation as we have heard of. A gentleman, hitherto regarded as of sound mind, now engaged in business in a city not a thousand miles from here, advocated the organization of a npany, having for its object the im- M'CLELLAN & KNOX company, having for its object the importation of a certain class of wares—not heretofore generally considered remarkably saleable, but for which a trade was to be built up by the greatcheapness of the articles, which were to be sold low because they could be transported clear from the sea-board to the far west in returning vissels, canalboats and cars, as they were always going back empty and would earry freight at low rates. We give our friend the benefit of this notice gratis, and bespeak for ourselves his job work.

Burnt cork opera seems to suit him better cork opera seems to suit him better than a life among newspapers. Printers' ink was black enough perhaps, but not readily enough removed, when desired. We are not much surprised, however, that he has a fancy for the green room. We can afford to, and do wish him much success in the business of his new adoption.

The other celebrated artists of the Troupe, Messrs. J. Levy and Carl Rosa are well known and deservedly popular. These concerts will be a fit-ting successor to the opera of last week, and we shall expect to see them well attended.
